

London, UK

Giles Hutchins

Giles Hutchins is a pioneering practitioner and senior adviser at the forefront of the [r]evolution in organisational and leadership consciousness and developmental approaches that enhance personal, organizational and systemic agility and vitality.

Giles is author and co-author of several leadership and organizational development papers, and the books The Nature of Business (2012), The Illusion of Separation (2014), Future Fit (2016) and Regenerative Leadership (2019).

He is chair of The Future Fit Leadership Academy and Founder of Leadership Immersions, co-founder of Biomimicry for Creative Innovation and Regenerators, he runs a 60 acre leadership centre at Springwood Farm, an area of outstanding natural beauty near London, UK.

Giles previously held corporate roles as Head of Practice for KPMG, and Global Head of Sustainability for Atos (150,000 employees, over 40 countries).

He provides coaching at individual and organisational levels for those seeking to transform their personal and/or work lives. He is also a keynote speaker on the future of business.

Accreditations

- Post Graduate Diploma in Advanced Leadership
- Global Leadership Development GOLD certification
- Advanced Coaching certification
- Analytic Coaching Network practitioner
- Human Emergence Framework trained
- Solonomic and 5 Deep Holistic Leadership trained
- Way of Council trained